“ Oh no!!! I just moved back into the area and just tried to find him on Facebook, just now. Rip took me for my first time Bass fishing. It's been my only time. Such a good guy. Glad to have known him. Glad to say he was a friend. I am a Coke collector now and was inspired by him. If he has a Facebook page, could someone share it. Ty. God bless Rip

“ Rip was always very kind to me. We would chat in Publix (I'm the gal who always wears hats). When my tire blew out in the parking lot he helped me get help. I enjoyed seeing pictures of the beautiful German Shepherd and the chickens. My condolences to all the family, especially Jeannie with whom I share a love of seafood.

We always went to the beach at the same time. I did not know about Rip until yesterday. I will miss seeing him.

“ It’s hard to believe that Rip is gone. It’s way too soon and he’ll be missed by all who knew and loved him. We’re praying for all of his family. While watching the memorial video I thought that a lot of folks might think it strange to have a picture of a turtle near the end. Folks might not know that me and Rip spent a lot of time as young boys walking the abandoned railroad tracks (now the Greenway) collecting box turtles. We built a nice pen in his backyard and spent a lot of time playing with our pet turtles. We both worked at Woodies Goodies on West Avenue selling vegetables and shrubs. Mr. Woodward kept us stocked on wilted veggies to feed the turtles. Later in life we enjoyed bait-cast shrimping near Hunting Island with him and Genee. Looking back, we had a great small-time life growing up downtown, near Lions Field and the woods along the river. He loved being outside and loved to fish more than anyone else I know. I find peace in knowing that Rip was loved immensely by his family and that he loved them just as much.
Go rest high on that mountain Cuz.
With love, Daryl
