“ David,
I am so very sorry to hear of the passing of Darlene. She had a bubbly personality that you instantly fell in love with, there was never a dull moment! I enjoyed the conversations she and I would have everytime we saw one another, she was truly one of a kind! Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you! She will be missed!

“ Darlene worked for my parent for many years and had become an important part of our family. Living in Kansas means I don't get to see my folks as often as I would like; Darlene not only provided wonderful cleaning services for my parents she was an invaluable friend. I always knew she cared for my mom and dad very much. I will miss her outgoing personality and warm hug each time I visited. Prayers go out to all her family and friends.
