“ Adrain you were special to me and loved our talks. I'll have the memory of our early morning coffee chats last Thanksgiving when everyone else was still sleeping. I'll never forget our vacation to Pigeon Forge and the mountmas house, or the cold train ride we did there. You were so intelligent and such a sweet spirit. We were blessed to have you. I know that you are experiencing peace now that you never had here . Love you baby boy and you go rest high on that mountain. 💔🙏💕 miss and love you Aunt Berta

“ Adrian, I had love you since the day I find out that I was going to be your father. You were my teacher, even when you were just a baby, you did teach me how to become a man. I will love you forever . And always be proud of you. My child. I will miss you the rest of my life. Please find rest until we meet again. Love you. Dad
