“ Although I did not have the pleasure of meeting Alex, knowing that he is part of the Monaco Family brings him into my heartfelt concern through his sister Tina.

To lose someone so suddenly is a jolt and determination to pause share more affection with those surrounding us.

Alex's role in his family and community will be long remembered through his devotion and artistry.

Respectfully submitted, Joyce Law

“ We, at the Broadway Baptist church, are deeply sorrowed by the loss of Alex. He was one of the good guys. He was always helpful and we felt he genuinely cared about the people he serviced. He became like family to us and we also mourn his passing. He will be missed. Our love and prayers goes out to Alex's family. We will always keep him in our hearts and remember his kindness. There will never be another like him! Rest on Alex. Rest on.

“ I met Alex in 1973 at Paul Knox Jr High! We were just get into our first school with High in it title and we were with the big boys now! Never did really ever become the kind of friends that saw a lot of each other but always talked for awhile when we saw one another. Guess we will never know who was in on blowing up all the toilets in the boys bathrooms with m-80s ! We discussed it often he said was me i said it was him. They (I) was never caught but seems one could have been spared ! No we got porttoilets for what seem forever ! I can say I know Alex was innocent ! Then came High School driving and the Rapids and the High Side at Clarkshill Dam which is where I heard him play guitar the first time. Alex was the kind of person people just took to and everybody liked. From him and Wally Ford riding bikes everywhere and anywhere to see him on cut day at the Tank on the lake. Good times were had by all. I knew coming to the funeral home today there would be a crowd to pay respects and a crowd is what he always drew in life and now the same is true in death. Gonna miss you buddy. Rest In Peace and May God Bless!

“ Rarely in this crazy world do you meet a person young and become fast friends forever. Alex Taught me some of my first songs on guitar, and to this day I still get great enjoyment from playing. I'm not sure how many people know this, but as a teen I ran away from home one time, (prob for some dumb reason, get a haircut?), ran into Alex and he promptly moved me into his basement! Stayed for weeks, not sure his mom ever even knew. She makes a mean PBJ sandwich, BTW! He would get 2 sandwiches and give me 1 of them! He just had a great heart and was a great human being. Too many memories to even begin listing here..... Breaks my heart. Love to all family and friends. Thanks for being you, Alex love you brother,
Jeff Paul

“ Robin Brittney and Brad, Sorry to hear of your loss. Always enjoyed having yall for neighbors. I will never forget the day we were all sitting on your front porch and Alex had dropped a five dollar bill on the ground and Caitlynn jumped down grabbed it and told him that once it hit the ground it was fair game. Lol...he will be greatly missed.

“ I have known Alex since childhood. Living just up the street from him. So many memories of playing football in our front yard with brothers & sisters. Riding bikes on the dirt rodes behind our house, making forts at Indian village & walking to willow springs to go swimming. So long ago, but the best childhood memories. You will be missed dearly by your many friends who loved you & your beautiful soul. Thanks for all the great music, smiles & your kindness. You touched a lot of lives for the better. I will miss you my friend.

“ I first met Spooky in the 90's, he knew the same folks as me and the ones he introduced to me, Roger, Brett and many others just enlightened me with their musical knowledge, I remember telling him I got a composite Martin and he said he got one also, it is the one in the picture. During my time with Parsons, I would see him every morning and we would talk about everything under the sun, mostly music and other pickers. I loved his music he shared with us, his songs were like stories chipped out of his life ever so gently as not to bruise the meaning or scorch the subject. Goodbye Alex, I will think of you often and hopefully meet up with you again somewhere, anywhere, out there, love you man....

“ Alex Monaco... I met him back in the late 70's..... I was just learning to play guitar.... He and Steve Millwood hung out and we all played music together..... went to the rapids with them many occasions... went to many Metz Drive parties and played music for all our friends those days.... West Dam was also a favorite spot to go on weekends... we would go up and spend the weekend there playing music and just having fun..... I will always remember those days with a fondness..... Thank You Alex Monaco (Spooky Blue) for those times..... You "SIR" will truly be missed.... Thank You.....

“ Alex and I went to OLP together many years ago. Years later, we reconnected when he came to my house as the HVAC technician with Turner Mechanical. After that, I refused to have anyone service my units. He was so very good to my Mother, Mike and to me. We would have coffee at my kitchen table when he came to do fall and spring maintenance. I will miss his expertise, his wit and his candor. Most of all I will miss his friendship. It pains me to know his mobile number will now be erased from my phone. He was one of a kind. RIP dear friend. “Peace be with you”.

“ I always had such admiration for Alex when we were in school, for his warmth and friendliness, amazing sense of humor and his brilliant musicianship. That admiration only grew over the decades and I was so grateful to have reconnected with him years ago. The world is a whole lot dimmer without him in it. Sending condolences, prayers, and love to his family and friends. Rest peacefully, my friend.

He had a true love of family and Country. Rest in peace Alex. My only regret is that we didn't get to sit down, and have that cup of coffee together. Face-to-face.*
