We are so sad to hear about Mr. Alex. He always met us at church with a smile and a hug. Sending hugs and prayers to Mrs. Betty and the family.

“ When I was working I told my wife that when I retire I want to be like Alex and work at the church. I retired in 2006 and had 4 good years of training from my buddy. He would not stop. It took sickness to slow him up but at first he still wanted to go up the ladder and change light bulbs. I ask him to be my helper and see how I was doing with my training.

We had some great times on cruises with Betty and Alex. Alex was a card and loved his lady which he was not afraid to show. Oh, the other thing was finding the stabilizers on the ship and showing them to everyone in the group.

Last thing was grabbing his pants leg and barking like a dog and then watch Alex. Be prepared with what you could hear.

So many memories, all good, I will miss you my friend,
