“ *Dear Lorri,
I want you to know that the best thing that happened to my, when I moved into this town, was to land as a neighbor to your parents. My kids enjoyed the grandparents that they did not have. Their love and support to my family and me was something I will always treasure. Throughout this many years I saw first hand their kindness and caring. Even when your Mom was at her busiest times, cooking food for her neighbors and friends in need, visiting the "shut-inns" and caring for her own family, she would always have a nice smile and was able to handle one more kid for dinner or one more favor to do for somebody. She was fiercely loyal friend, mother, grandmother. Truly remarkable lady, truly remarkable couple. Sincerely, Julieta M. Slater*

“ I met Alice and Shirley when I was case manager for Especially Seniors, they were the type of couple that you just enjoyed sitting and listening to. They had this bickering type of comaradarie that made you smile because you could hear the love that they had for each other. I wish Mr. Shirley the best , Mrs Alice will be greatly missed by all.
