“ I was Miss Aline's hairdresser-- I had the pleasure of doing her hair for a very long time. Even when she was at Hammond House, she wanted to come all the way to Johnston to let me do her hair. I was very honored to have known her. I thought of her as my grandmother and I would tell her that all the time. We shared a very close friendship. Her son Fred was also a very close friend of mine. She will be missed dearly. I loved her very much and will never forget her.##imported-begin##Judy Bledsoe##imported-end##

“ I offer this note in loving memory of my Aunt Aline. In my earliest memories I remember her smile and soft words. She left all of her neices and nephews feeling as if each was her favorite. I loved her as I loved her sister, my mother. She was loving, gracious, and nurturing in ways that define true beauty and gentility. My hope is that with her passing she is near her son, loving husband, sisters, brothers, and parents who preceeded her. Rest in peace sweet Aunt Aline.##imported-begin##Fred Van Horn##imported-end##

“ Miss Aline was a very dear friend to my late mother (Edna Lipford) and our family. When she lived in Chester, she and my mom whet everywhere together and had great fun on trips. For the past 10 years since my mother's death, some of the people from her churh here, Calvary Baptist, and I would visit her, first in Johnston and then down there. She always made us feel so welcome and loved to take us to the "Triangle" for lunch. We will miss her but will always remember her humor and hospitality. We hope to see you on Friday.##imported-begin##Linda Lipford Carter##imported-end##

“ We were so sorry to hear about Aunt Aline's passing... Mother(Marian) still talks about the wonderful summers she spent living with her when Fred was little and how kind she was to her. She said they were kindred spirits and that they had great times together.

I remember visiting her and Uncle Clyde at Aunt Alices old home and playing in the Gullies and going on walks in those woods with her. She was always gracious; a nature and water lover. My children remember swimming with her at the Hilton Head condo.

we all loved her very much and she will be missed love
