

Allie Jean Marris

November 13, 1932 - November 12, 2017

Jackson, SC—Private Graveside Services for Mrs. Allie Jean Marris, 84, of Jackson, SC, who entered into rest November 12, 2017, will be conducted in Southlawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Marris was a native of Tad, West Virginia, having made Jackson her home for the past 64 years. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Jackson where she had served as a Sunday School Teacher and assisted in the Church Library. Mrs. Marris was the wife of the late Leo J. Marris.

Survivors include a daughter and son-in-law, Rosemary and Thomas Holmes, Beech Island; a son, David Leo Marris, Augusta; five grandchildren, Shannon Holmes, Jon Marris, Joshua Marris, Jacob Marris and David L. Holmes, III.

Cemetery Details

Southlawn Cemetery

4524 Whiskey Road
Aiken, SC 29803

Tribute Wall

“ Allie Jean MARRS

October 06, 2023 at 06:29 AM

“ Allie Jean MARRS

September 24, 2022 at 12:12 PM

“ *Rose & David,
Sorry for your loss. Have faith in God and he will guide you through the difficult times. She was a good friend to everyone she met. May rest in peace.*

Love

Sharon Letsinger Tingle

Sharon Tingle - November 18, 2017 at 08:40 AM

“ *Mrs. MARRS was a special lady whom I looked forward to seeing and visiting with. I'm sorry to say our only contact was during tax season, but it was always a pleasure to spend time with her. Mrs.
MARRS will be truly missed. My sincerest condolences to her loved ones; you will be in my prayers for strength and comfort. Elaine Bollinger*

Elaine Bollinger - November 16, 2017 at 01:10 PM

NM

“ Rosemary and David so very sorry for your loss. Mrs. Marris was more than our neighbor she was like family to us she loved on us and had a special place in our hearts. Bill, Nadine, Laura McIver

Nadine McIver - November 15, 2017 at 06:58 PM

DF

“ Rosemary, I am so sorry to hear about your Mother. As you know she and mother we close friends. Your mother was a very sweet lady . You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

Debra Blakely Floyd - November 15, 2017 at 03:18 PM

JC

“ I worked with Jean at university hospital many years ago. She rode with me when I lived in Jackson. She was such a dear person but I lost contact with her after I moved from Jackson and married. I am sorry to hear of her passing,
Sincerely,
Jane H Cole
Beech Island, S.C.

Jane H. Cole - November 15, 2017 at 02:07 PM

JJ

Rosemary I am so sorry for your loss, Your family will be in my prayers.

Joyce Jeffers - November 16, 2017 at 01:16 PM