“ To the whole Marsh and Williams family we send our deepest sympathy. We have so many sweet, sweet memories of Amber. She and Laura shared their young childhood. They were best friends. I can just see them in the little kiddie pool in our yard. And at all the birthday parties, you could always count on Amber to be there for Laura. I was sorry they seemed to grow apart in middle school. But I think they had talked on line some in the last year or so. Amber was always a sweet loving little girl and we loved her. We will treasure all our happy memories of her. Donovan, my best memory will be of your and Ambers wedding. You were so happy. I was so happy for you. You will be especially in my prayers. And to Bill and Lindel and the Marsh children of course you too will be in our prays. My God bless all of you.

“ Lindel and Bill: I can't imagine what you and your entire family are going through at this time! Of course you both know I have suffered losses, but nothing to compare to the loss of an adult child. My heart aches to the core, as I imagine the sweet little girl that Amber was. I was not in her presence much when she grew up, but she was precious in her love for living in the country, taking care of her farm animals, and fishing. My health issues may prevent me from attending any of the gatherings, but rest assured, my thoughts are with you all the time. Much love to all of you. June##imported-begin## June##imported-end##

I will always remember one of her first visits to Utah when she sat out on the balcony of Sarah's apartment waiting for it to snow - in a month that didn't get snow!
