You and Andy were such a blessing to Edward and me. I'm so glad God led us to Stacey's Bible study class and allowed us to get to know y'all. I pray that God's Grace will sustain you during the days ahead.

“ Linda

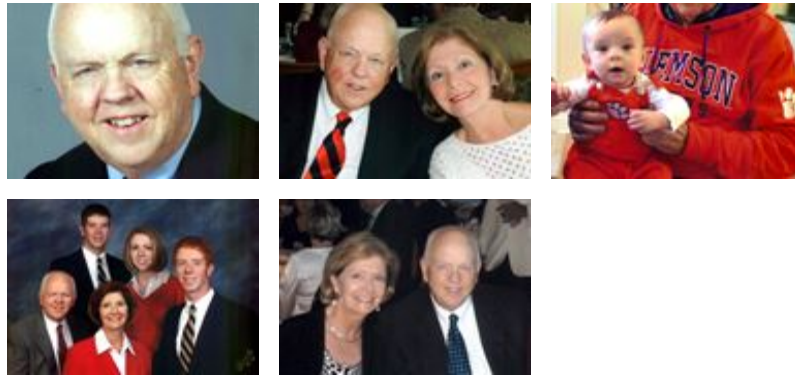

Our condolences to you and your family. I worked with Andy at SRS for a long while and learned a lot from him. He set a great example to follow, both at work and in the community. I'm sure he had a big smile after the Clemson victory in the National Championship Game!

“ Linda,

Our sincere condolences to you and the family. Andy was my Manager at SRS for many years and I never met a more positive person. He was a pleasure to work for and with on the many projects we encountered. To my best knowledge, he was the only person on site with an "Orange" telephone on his desk. Andy will be missed by all those who worked with him at SRS!

“ Andy's father was my principle in elementary school. I always feared him, but he was gentle with the bo-bo paddle when I was naughty enough to be sent to the office. Andy's mother was such positive influence in the church. I remember her accompanying the senior high choir when on a choir tour (long ago). She and Wilma Kirkland were just the best chaperones. After a week of eating fried chicken and pound cake all over Mississippi and Louisiana, my system had applied the brakes. Andy's mom took care of me and helped me get back on track. The only other time I hurt so badly was when I had a kidney stone several years ago. Andy was my Sunday school teacher at one point. I remember that he would give us time to discuss football on Sunday morning, but made sure we dedicated more time to bible study. Linda, there is nothing like the loss of your best friend, but you, being the nearest thing to an angel I have ever had the privilege to know.....well you know that Andy is where you want him to be and you will see him, again. I just feel blessed to have been a part of your family, though it was brief....it had an everlasting impact on me. Praise GOD, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit for creating such wonderful Christian people!!
