“ Ann, Mrs. Grieve, was a beautiful and elegant lady. I taught school at Sego Junior High School when she was there teaching English. I can still see her my mind carrying her brief case into the building in the morning before the kids arrived.

George, I am sorry for your loss.

“ Mrs. Grieve spent her last days at Pepper Hill Rehab and Nursing Center. My mother's room was down the hall, so I always stopped to see how Mrs. Grieve was doing first. She always had a smile for me on her good days and never failed to thank me for coming. God bless this wonderful family as they mourn their loss.
