“ I did not know Mrs. Hill but I do know her son Ronnie. I believe you can tell a great deal about a woman by knowing her sons in particular. I'm sure she was proud of him. That speaks volumes to me of the quality of this lady. I pray for you all as you grieve such a heavy loss. Steve Swenson

“ Anna Lee was one of my mom's best friends. She's meant so very much to me, too. She was the Sunday School Director for our youth department when I was in my teens. She was my wedding coordinator when Tim and I got married almost 31 years ago. She and the whole Hill family are near and dear to my heart. I will miss her, but I'm happy to know that I will see her again one day. She was indeed a sweet person who will always be remembered. 🌸

“ Although I only got to know Mrs. Anna Lee near the end of her life, it was a pleasure to spend time with her. Every encounter let me experience her wry smile and gentle presence. Elegant to the end, she clearly knew how much her family loved her. My thoughts are with all of you. May precious memories make the coming days easier.

“ So sorry to hear about Mrs. Hill's passing. Watching her video made me think about my mother (Joan Bishop) and the times spent at Immanuel Baptist Church. I remember Mrs. Hill teaching me in classes as a young girl. She was truly a blessing to those who knew her. She will be missed. Juanita Ross Boddiford

Mrs.Hill was a wonderful person. Haven't seen her in years, but I grew up in Immanuel Baptist and remember her well. We lived close to each other years ago. My children know her children. My deepest sympathy goes out to her family. May God comfort you during this difficult time.
