“ The beautiful smile on this memorial page is what I was often greeted by in the hallways of Curtis Baptist or right outside Curtis Baptist as we would sometimes converse after parking. I did not know Anna well, but I knew enough to know that she was kind, loved her grands, her family, and she loved life with the energy often met by the way she walked the halls. Anna, thank you for always being kind and never being indifferent. To the family of Anna Canell Johnson, I want to let you know that her living was not in vain and her transitioning will not be either. Live a life that will reflect what she embodied. Embrace every memory with an expectation of thankfulness. Allow God to flood you with the peace that only he can give!

“ I haven't seen you in a very long time. We grew up in the same neighborhood. I remember you as me and one of the sweetest friends. But following you on Facebook I know how much you loved your grandbabies and your daughters. My God continue to take care of these girls and these babies. You will truly be missed.
