“ Yesterday, it has been 2 years since I lost you. I don't know why God took you away from me. We plan to come see you in heaven February 5th and throw out a balloon to you. I miss you everyday Annalyse. Rest easy until we meet again.

“ I wasn't always close with annalyse especially when we were younger. We got into a lot of arguments and I can say she didn't exactly like me. But as we got older, we slowly became friends and the year that she passed, no one bothered to tell me. I had to find out the first day back to school, I was absolutely devastated and still am to this day. I don't know why God took her from us but I do know that she's in a better place and no longer in pain, prayers go out to her wonderful family who lost their daughter and sister. She was loved very dearly and her memory will live on forever. Life hasn't been the same without you.

“ I didn't know Annalyse personally, but my daughter Omen considers her a close friend and is absolutely devastated by her loss. They shared most of the same classes and ate lunch together. Omen says it will be hard going to school knowing she's not there anymore. Our thoughts are with her family as they navigate this tragic loss. May they cling to and find comfort in each other during this time of horrific sadness.

“ In loving memory of Annalyse, a cherished my friend whose warmth and kindness touched my life and to all fortunate enough to know her. Her spirit will forever linger in our hearts, a beacon of joy and compassion. May her soul rest in eternal peace, and may her memory be a source of comfort during this difficult time. She would always be with me when I never had a partner in school and she was always so considerate of me and everyone around her I loved her so much.❤️

“ No words can express how much I'm gonna miss her. I wish I could go back and see her in class again and just talk to her about everything. I remember taking pictures of her at the gala last year and I'm so glad I did. I now can view these pictures of her and see her beautiful smile. Even though she's gone she'll forever be with all of us in our hearts. She is gone way too soon. I love you Annalyse, you were an amazing friend and everyone loved you so much. I will always care about you.

“ I could never think of it ending like this. We have been friends since the 1st grade and I remember every word we said to each other when we first saw each other. I will always cherish the moments I've had with you. You were the best friend I ever had and I thank your mom and dad for bringing a wonderful girl into this world. I will miss you so much. I thought of you as a sister I've never had an awesome friend like you. I will probably tear up every morning when I walk into the cafeteria and not see you there I will see you again in heaven when its my time. I thank your mom and dad for bringing you into this world you were a pleasure to have and I will miss you so much
