“ *If tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not there to see, if the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry
the way you did today,
while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
and each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready,
in heaven far above,
and that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned to walk away,
a tear fell from my eye,
for all my life, I'd always thought,
I didn't want to die
I had so much to live for,
so much left yet to do,
it seemed almost impossible,
that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays,
the good ones and the bad;
I thought of all that we shared,
and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, just even for a while,
I'd say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.
But then I fully realized,* *that this could never be,

for emptiness and memories, would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things, I might miss come tomorrow, I thought of you, and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow.
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home, when
God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne, He said, "This is eternity, and all I've promised you."
Today your life on earth is past, but here life starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow,
but today will always last,
and since each day is the same way, there's no longing for the past.
You have been so faithful, so trusting and so true, though there were times you did some things, you knew you shouldn't
do. But you have been forgiven, and now at last you're free.
So won't you come and take my hand, and share my life with me?
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart "###imported-begin##Lenay##imported-

“ I met Ann Walton in 1965, when she was a secretary for the Aviation Electronics Course at Fort Gordon, and I was a student. She was a very nice lady. She kept in touch with Ed Shurling, the NCOIC of the course. After retiring from the Army, Ed became a preacher. Ed mentioned to me that his mother was a Hooks. In later conversations, we discovered that my grandfather's baby brother introduced Ed's father to his mother. Ed's mother and my grandfather were second cousins. Whenever I'd see Ann we always talked about Ed. She knew more about him than I did. She was a very nice lady and I hope God can use her talents.

“ *Dear Family,
I don't know any of you, but I knew your mama through Gilgal. My mama, Miriam Saggus, is a member there and was a friend of your mother's and daddy's. I knew both your mama and daddy and am greatly saddened by your loss. Ann was one of the sweetest persons I've ever known. She always greeted me with a big smile and and an even bigger hug. I didn't get to see her often, but when I did, it was always a treat to be welcomed so warmly. Your daddy was the same way, even when his illness kept him from knowing me right away, he was always warm and friendly. I know you miss him and will miss your mama as well. I miss him and I miss her already, knowing that she will not be at Gilgal when I go home to visit. I pray that your memories of your mama and your daddy will keep them alive in your hearts forever.*

May God bless all of you.

Sincerely,

“ Tommy, Mike and Angie, Libby, Barbara and Ellen,

I was so sorry to hear of Mrs. Walton's passing. She was an extraordinary lady and always warmly welcomed me to her home as a kid growing up in Belvedere. My thoughts are with you all.

“ It's been years since I saw Ann, but looking at her picture there is no denying that she was Hazel's daughter. I knew she was going through a lot of difficulties, and I am so sorry for your loss. The Baynham family is like my extended family, I always considered Earl as close as a brother could be.

You have our sympathy.

“ *Ann was a great friend, mother and wife. I will never forget her. She was always there when anyone needed her. I know God has a special place in heaven for her and Tom. I will never forget the Waltons nor the Baynams. They will always have a special place in my heart. I've thought about all of you (especially Ann) over the years.
