“ Mr. Ross, Iris and All Ross Family... Although your hearts are heavy today, please find comfort in Gods Word and in all of the many, many Precious Memories that you all have of your Precioud Loved One. What a blessing Mrs. Ross was to so many! Please allow the Joy of her Living to superseed the sorrow of her passing. There are so many fond memories that you all are blessed with... such joy that she brought to your hears! I am sad with you and yet I rejoice with you knowing that Mrs. Ross is resting now in the Arms of God! As you think of her today and always, find a reason to smile at just some of the beauty, fun, encouragement, great family times together, church memories (O how she Loved The Lord!) and life lessons that she shared with you all! My prayer is that sweet memories will lighten the pain of missing her. I send my Love and Hugs to each of you! God bless The Ross Family!

“ Mack, our prayers are with you with the passing of Anne. What a wonderful person she was and we are saddened for your loss. I am sure Heaven is singing this morning upon her arrival. We mentioned to Kenneth that we saw you last week - and we let him know how sick Anne was. He sends his love to you and all of the family and he smiled wide remembering the Ellenton days and all the softball games enjoyed through the years at the Jackson Ball Park. Mack, our prayer is that you know Anne is in Heaven and that your faith will sustain you and give you peace. God bless you always, and may you feel the love of all from your family, church and friends through the days.

“ Dear Ross family. words r not enough to express our sorrow over the passing of your wife and mom. Knowing your faith u know that she awaits us in heaven with our savior of LORD JESUS CHRIST. We will see again some day in glory,tho our hearts r sad and will miss her she is in a much better place and wouldn't come back here for anything. U and your family will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ To my dearest friend / sister Iris,

I extend my deepest sympathy and heart-felt sorrow in the home-going of your mama, Mrs. Ross. I know in my heart that she was a beautiful Christian Woman, faithful and loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, friend and she was so loved by all who had the pleasure of knowing her! Just in knowing you Iris, I know what a fine woman of God that she is.

Always and forever in your heart... in our hearts... her life and legacy lives on... she just has moved on to a new address. Ever so grateful for all the great memories of her time well spent here on earth, she is now resting in the arms of Jesus... she is an Angel watching over you and all of her loved ones... Heaven and the Angles are singing her praises and rejoicing at a job well done!

I believe that the hardest & most difficult thing to endure in life is the loss of a loved one. But, if we allow Him to, God will heal us from our deepest sorrow & restore us to health!

I love you Iris and the entire Ross Family & Extended Family! Iris, I know you will deeply miss your mama, great, wonderful, loving mama! I am here for you... a phone call away!

May the God of our salvation, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ give you sweet peace and comfort your heart!

I love you so much and wish I could be there with you... I am here for you!

*God bless you as you rest in Him!
Your sister Sharman*
