“Peggy,, I want to say how sorry I am for your loss, I know you two were close. I feel like I should say some thing else here, but I'm not sure what. I'm not very good with words especially at times like this. Anne, I really did not know you and it really hurts me to say that,, and it hurts me even more knowing that now it will never happen. My feelings and emotions are so twisted right now,, I don't know what to think or feel, I'm so confused. I do know that I am hurting inside and I've been crying off and on since I heard about you passing away. We all take things for granted in life, and then it's too late when we realize it. I have regrets ; I regret not keeping in touch with you after I found you . I think that is going to be the hardest part for me,, is the what ifs . , and now I have to live with that for the rest of my life . I want to say last of all ,, that even though you really weren't a part of my life ,, that I still feel like a part of me died too . RIP Anne ,, Love Vicki

“ rest now Anne, no more breathing problems.
You now with your family. I will miss our talks, you reading the joke from the paper to me in the morning. You were so much more than a friend.

Dear Mom I will miss you so. It won't be the same without you here but I know you are healthy and happy and with Dad, Kenny and Grandma and Grandpa. I love you!

What a shock to hear of Anne's death. I have moved away and not seen her in years but recall all the phone conversations we had in the past. She was a loyal VFW-Aux. member and ready to help with anything that needed doing. And she was such a devoted wife. I know she is with her dear mom now too, and my mom, who thought the world of her as well. the three of them are probably enjoying one another's company.

Peggy, your loss is heaven's gain.

Dear Anne, I was so sad to hear of your passing, and have so many things that I wish I could say to you and now will never have that chance. I so wish things could have been different in my upbringing. I wish we were never separated from each other and that I could have gotten to know my mother. I hope that you are looking down on me and know that I truly mean this from the bottom of my heart. God Bless you, I am glad you are no longer suffering.

Love Laurie
