“ I was so sad when I could no longer see Mr. Art at church on Sunday mornings. I loved seeing him smile, and he was so proud of his grandson for being with him. I applaud his grandson for getting him to church so faithfully all those years. He was a wonderful man and a great husband, father, grandfather, and friend to so many. Arthur Evans made the world, especially his community, a better place, and I'm so glad that today he's walking those streets of gold in a healed body.
