“Axel was one of my best students and a friend. He would often come to my classroom before school, during lunch, and during 4th block when I taught him. I always looked forward to our conversations.

Axel was respectful, kind, and well-behaved. One of my favorite memories is seeing how proud and excited he would be when he finished his work and earned a candy or cookie as a reward. His smile and sense of accomplishment were contagious.

I am grateful for the time we shared and will always cherish the memories of our conversations, his laughter, and the positive impact he had on my life and the lives of others. I will miss him dearly.

“ Axel was a wonderful young man. He was the perfect student in my class. He had a great sense of humor. When he was in my class, he would watch episodes of the Madolorian to try to spoil it for me before I could watch it. We always had something to talk about when it came to Star Wars. 😊 I saw him recently and he remembered me and coming to my class. Erin and Bryan, my heart breaks for you as you have lost a treasure. I pray the Lord will wrap His ever-loving arms around you and bring you the comfort only He can bring.

“ I remember when you were little, I would grab you and hug you tight, and kiss you all over your face! I called myself the kissy monster. As you giggled and tried to get away from me. You were a great brother, a great son, and a great cousin. You affected many lives, and will surely be missed. Erin and her children have always been like my own. Prayers to the entire Smothers family. You are in my thoughts. ❤️

“ My heart is truly heavy hearing about the passing of your son. He was such a light to my son and always made him feel accepted, encouraged, and understood. Knowing how much he meant to him makes this loss even harder. We are praying deeply for your family during this painful time and asking God to bring strength, comfort, and peace as you grieve such a beautiful soul gone too soon.

“ Axel was the very first friend I made in high school, he could tell I was shy and nervous initially and I could tell he came to talk to me because of that, and it really shows how truly thoughtful he was, I can confidently say he made a lifelong difference for me and assuredly plenty of others, he was a exceptional person and a great friend, my condolences to all those who held him close.

Leif Welty - May 26 at 03:44 PM

Thank you for sharing your memory of my son. I am grateful for this.

Erin Smothers - May 26 at 05:24 PM

“ He was the most thoughtful student I have ever encountered. When my father was sick, he would always check in on me. I wish all my students had the compassion for others that he showed. He left a great impression on me and brought some light during a very dark time. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends. I was blessed to have known him.--Tom Heath
