“ I never knew Mrs. Greene, but have been a friend of her daughter, Lynne, for many years. Although I know she is in a better place, I am still sad for all of you, her family. I know her memory will be eternal as a part of her continues in each of you. May God's blessings be with all of you always! jodi gorman###imported-begin##Jodi Gorman###imported-end##

“ Barbara was my son Artie Snead's kindergarten teacher. He adored her. I taught Sunday school with Tom at North Augusta Baptist. Mary Ann Kirkland called and told me of Barbara's homegoing to be with the Lord. I have not seen Tom or Barbara for over 30 years, but I know how close they were to the Lord, to their family, and to each other. I grieve for Tom and their children. I rejoice that Barbara is with her Lord whom she loved and served so faithfully.##imported-begin##Lucy Butler##imported-end##

“ Dear Greene Family,
I would like to extend my sincere condolences to each of you. Although we are not acquainted personally, however, we are acquainted with the pain of losing a loved one in death. May you find comfort in God's loving invitation to "throw all your anxiety upon him because he cares for you" (1 Peter 5;7) and that he is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18). A key to enduring your loss is knowing that the Bible teaches that "there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous" (Acts 24;15), and those sleeping in the graves will come forth and have the opportunity to live forever under peaceful conditions right here on earth . (John 5;28,29; Rev. 21;3,4) While grief at the loss of Betty is great, joy at receiving Betty in the resurrection will be greater. (Mark 5;42) Please read and gain strength from God's promises during this difficult time and the days to come. Take care,##imported-begin##Valerie Thompson##imported-end##
