“ I met Barbara when her brother, Sam, and I married six years ago. We visited Barbara and Cecil several times and they were always welcoming! It was fun listening to Barbara and Sam talk about their childhood, their parents, and their family experiences. She and Cecil kept us up to date on the family and their events. She was a lovely lady and I wish I had known her longer. We love you and will miss you! Janet Tanner

“ I came to know Grandma Looney by marrying her granddaughter Margaret. From day one she took me in as a family member. Over the years we would cut up like teenagers joking and just having fun. We would rag each other when the Tennessee Vols would play Georgia Bulldogs, and if Tennessee wins she would not let me live it down for weeks. And even though she was my grandmother in law, she was also my friend. God has you now grandma, I will miss you.
