“ Mr. McBeath, I'm hoping you remember me....I grew up with your children in Beech Island. It always added a ray of sunshine to my day when mom (Sandra Jackson Barinowski) and I would run into you and Mrs. McBeath out shopping. It seemed we frequented quite a few of the same places! And it just made me so happy to see you both! I would like to send you and your family my sincere love and condolences during this sad time. God looks over us and He will help us during our grief. So, Mrs. McBeath, I look so forward to seeing you in Heaven and I know all your loved ones do too!

“ Dear Phil and family .I was very sadden when I heard of Barbara death So many trips, pan cakes suppers, Picking figs and pears. and just catching up with childen's news. Dot and I are so glad The Lord saw fit to have our paths cross. I have missed our talks and visits. God Bless you and your family. AS you probably know I will be 99 this year. so Dot and I do no traveling out of town. Until we meet again, may The Lord keep us in His precious hand. May we stay close to Him at all times. Phil.. You and Barbara were such dear friends...
