I Loved Barbara like a sister and could always talk to her about anything. She was always happy and smiling everytime I saw her. When she had her new knee replacement I went to see her in the hospital and she was smiling and not complaining about anything. I love you woman and say hello to all my loved ones that you are with now . I love you and may God give the family peace

“ I want everyone to know my aunt Barbara Trader was one of a kind lady.... she could make laugh till u cryed and trip u out with the things that she would say..... she took me in when I was a child and I will always think of her as a mother figure. She loved her grandkids and now she is with the grandbabies that she lost before she could ever show them the love she had for them. She is looking down on the rest of us upset of the loss we feel for her. I know she is thinking she had a life of love and happiness by having each and everyone of us as part of family.... but we are the truly blessed ones for having her there for us!!!!
Barbara was and is always will be a guardian angel to her loved one's!!!!
