Hope that Stephen can attempt to get it 1/2 as good as Basil's.
Thanks for the Hash Pot. It was very thoughtful of him to leave it to us and we will cherish it for years and years. Your memories of Basil will bring you a lot of comfort in years to come. “ I served with Basil in the 250th AAA Bn years ago. We met up in later years at the Christian Church in Jackson while attending the Area Deciples Men mettings. We would all ways talk about our times wit the Guard Unit and of the men who had served with us . He was a dear friend to me. I will sorely miss his presence there in Jackson at future meetings, God bless the family .##imported-begin##Charlie Sidener##imported-end##

“ My deepest prayers go out to all the Brinkley family. I remember the fun times I had every time I went to your home while growing up in Jackson. Can never remember Mr. Basil having anything but a big smile on his face. Know that he is now with my wonderful lifelong friend, and his only son, Randy. Knowing that they are watching over us, with so many others, both my parents, Tim Blakely, Dana Bishop, Jimmy Partin, warms my heart. Another Angel in Heaven making sure we are covered with their wings each day.##imported-begin##Pamela Dicks Rawlinson##imported-end##

“ My association with Basil at Dun & Bradstreet is a time in my life I have not nor will ever forget. I have not forgotten his kindness to a young frightened girl just out of business school and first job in the corporate world. He not only became my boss but a dear friend and mentor. Since I married and moved to Columbia we had an occasional tag through phone and mutual friends. I am very sad to hear you are losing your husband, father, grandfather and friend but I know today he is with his love, Jesus.
