“ *John and family,
I'm so very sorry for your loss. It's never easy, even when deep down, we know they're in a better place. It's hard to let go; especially when it's a Mom like yours, what a sweet lady. I feel a tremendous sadness with her leaving; but a bittersweet gladness that she's no longer suffering. She always was, and forever will be, my Mom to.*

I wish I could be there to shoulder you as you did for me. Our prayers are with you, Faye, Kathy, Sheila, Mike and the grandkids###imported-begin##Ray and Lynn Taylor###imported-end## “ Kathleen I am very sorry to hear about your mother's passing. As we all know she is in a better place and with other loved ones.

I wish I could have come to see you at the funeral home but was not able to make it. It has been a long time since graduation and I know I haven't seen you since then.

Our prayers and thoughts are with you.

Love
