

Betty Jean Collachio

November 26, 1932 - August 10, 2021

Evans, GA—Private Graveside Services for Mrs. Betty Jean Collachio, 88, who entered into rest August 10, 2021, will be conducted Monday in Hillcrest Memorial Park. Chaplain Dexter Lambert officiating.

Mrs. Collachio was a native of White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia having made Augusta her home for the past 58 years. Following high school, she moved to Washington, D.C. and began a career with the FBI. She met her loving husband, Anthony (Tony), and they married and had two daughters. Tony served in the Army and the family lived in various locations including Germany. They finally chose to settle in Augusta to raise their family. Betty never met a stranger and made lasting friendships wherever she went. She also enjoyed making memories with her family and family vacations at the beach. She was preceded in death by her husband Tony Collachio, sister Myrtle Reed (Tommy), and brother Bill Kessinger (Nancy).

Survivors include two daughters, Brenda (Bobby) Walker, North Augusta, SC and Trina (Kenny) Unker, Atlanta, GA; a sister, Charlotte Rock, White Sulphur Springs, WV; three grandchildren, Jessica Unker (Kate), Ruch, Oregon; April (Kyle) Cobb, Kennesaw, GA; and Paige Walker, Atlanta, GA; and multiple nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank Camelia Walk Assisted Living and Helping Hands Hospice for the constant compassion and care that they showed Betty.

Posey Funeral Directors of North Augusta is in charge of arrangements (803.278.1181). Visit the registry at www.POSEYCARES.com
