“ Betty was a dear friend and a funny friend. She and Faber were meant for each other. He could embarrass her in a moment with a wild thought or tale. She was a giver and enjoyed giving little gifts and was a person who wanted to help when people needed it. She talked about her growing up and meeting Faber and their life together. She is now with all those who couldn't see and now rejoicing to 'see' them and them her. Praying for Faber and family.

“ Miss Betty was always one to share her stories and experiences with us. She will be missed by all who knew her. There was never a dull moment talking with Betty and Faber in the driveway. Our children really came to love them both and we will miss her.
