“ I worked for Mr. Crenshaw when I was 19 years old. I needed a job and he gave me one. I'll never forget the time I had been driving to work on old worn out tires. When we came in from working one day and I got ready to leave, there was a brand new set of tires on my car. He said " You can't be riding around on those bad tires". I never forgot him or his kindness through the years. My condolences to Paul, June, and family.
