“ Even though there was only a handful of times that I actually was able to visit my Grandma, I will always remember every last detail about her down to the smell on her clothes when I last hugged her (which was not that recent) I know its not something anyone wants to go through in there lifetime, especially when its a close relative. I know she is happy, and she can finally be at peace with the person she loves and loved her the most. She is in a happier place and looking down on all of us to make sure we live our life to the fullest like she did. I love you Gram, always in my heart forever & always###imported-begin###Alex Brochu###imported-end###

“ Although my mother lived in Florida for the last 20 years, her heart was in the South. She was a true Southern lady and Christian woman. She took great pleasure in opening her home and her heart to host and help others. She was always active in her church and her community; always on the go! And she loved it that way! We used to say she would outlive us all! She was the strongest woman I know. When my father was going through his battle with cancer, she was his rock. By his side and showing great strength every step of the way right through the end. She loved life and lived it to the fullest. I can honestly say she had no regrets. She was always ready to go whenever God called her home. I am so grateful to have been chosen to be a part of my Mom and Dad's life and family. Yes, they were strict in their upbringing of my brother and me, but now, as an adult, I am so thankful. The southern values and morals of my mother and the gentle kindness of my father will be a part of me forever. I would not be where I am or the person I am without them. May they rest in peace side by side, together forever. I love you both.##imported-begin##Tammie Brochu##imported-end##

“ May your memories of your mother always be cheerful when you remember the wonderful times you had together. Your mother was always the perfect hostess when we visited your home. She was a sweet, dear Aunt . Love, Lynette##imported-begin##Lynette Helminiak##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with each of Aunt Bobbie's relatives at this time of celebration of her life and her home going to be joined with Uncle Walter again for all eternity.

What a reunion there will be in heaven, she will be reunited, free from all sickness and pain, with her husband Walter, her sisters Mary and Evelyn, her mother Willie Bell, her step-mother Rosa and her father Houston. She will get to meet her twin baby sister that passed away at birth 87 years ago and her first husband William that passed away in 1955.

Aunt Bobbie, enjoy your family reunion, you are truly "Home at Last".

I love you very much.
