“ nothings the same without you here Bobby..for those that saw you every day, every week, or every month, it makes no difference because there's still a hole in everyones heart. that hole actually has an effect, like an unbalance in our lives. I suppose because you're gone too soon, that hole for me will always be. you're my brother, I love you, and can't wait to hug you again. keep 'em laughing up there <3 ”

Happy Birthday Bobby.. I thought I'd put a little sunshine on your page because we celebrate you and God's gift He gave us to call you family. I love you so much and wish you were here. You came to my birthday dinner, then to Andrea's and yours was next. Hope you're looking in on us as we get together for your birthday celebration. I never knew it would feel like this.. I just want to hug you. Happy Birthday little brother and I'll see you again one day. I love you very much

“ ...at the time of typing this I can't help but to think of Bobby in his carharts' on a job in Florida, with his hands in his pockets and me and him ripping on his dad, he had gotten his dad excited about something. Laughing and cutting up when we both should have been working, but that was Bobby and that's what I'll remember and hold onto. Because when its our time may be be so blessed as Bobby to be remembered as the fun loving not to serious good friend that when it came down to it would do all in his power to help out someone in need.

His laugh...people who knew him will remember that above all...unforgettable...

Its hard to believe I wont be seeing him on another jobsite. He made the job and the people in charge alot easier to do deal with, that was his gift to me, too not take anything or anyone to seriously..Enjoy life and what time I have been blessed with. A lesson we all should take to heart...

My heart goes out to all who knew him and to all those who never was blessed to have meet him...He has gone ahead of us all but take heart, it gives us something to look forward to when were called home and that would be..... Bobby's laughter.

Goodbye Bobby....I know you will be watching over your children and all who loved you. Stay close with your dad he will need your strength now more than ever...

We'll see you soon....

Your friend and job-site cut up...

“ Dear Son, Today has been a rough one, I keep looking in the back y look at the horseard to see if you might be there, I look at the horseshoe pit, I see you and here you at every turn. We miss you so much, no more pain, no more worry. Wait for me Son. I love you, Rest knowing that God will not let anything hurt you now.

“ Bobby you are so loved and so greatly missed by so many. What a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday we had together with all the family. That is what I'm holding close right now. Tossing them horseshoes with Dad, and your laughter. You were called home too soon for us all, but I am awaiting the day I see your smile and those beautiful eyes again. I love you so much and the two precious gifts you left behind will always know how their daddy loved them and hung the moon for them. Rest in peace now little brother, it's ok.
