“ Brenda was more like a mom to me. I've known her and her girls since I was 7. I spent many nights there and she always treated me as one of her own. She loved to make people laugh and her hugs were so genuine. It is heartbreaking to lose such a sweet and Godly woman so suddenly but I find comfort in knowing that I will see her again one day. I'm praying for everyone and love you all so much!
Love always,

“ Brenda was such a great and caring person. She helped me many times with court reporting questions. The last time I saw her in Aiken I was really nervous about a new court I was in. She went out of her way to come explain to me how the court would work and that I would be fine. I felt so much better after seeing her smiling face come through the door. She will be greatly missed. Prayers to your wonderful large family she was so proud of. Patsy Nye
