“ My entire childhood consist of the Puckett family. From my earliest memory Brucie my brother Eddie and I played in the mountain behind our houses daily. We were friends and Neighbors from birth to high school. Dee and i attended Jr. High together. Bruce and my brother Eddie remained best friends throughout my brother's life. Bruce was such a faithful friend that he kept in touch with my brother's wife and children. Christmas he would send pictures of Will to my parents. Our family looked forward to seeing the Christmas card seeing how Bruce grew into such a good man and reminiscing of the days of Stadium Drive. I send my condolences to Dee and Will. To Johnny and Eddie. Rest in peace my dear childhood friend. Donna Blackwell Tremble

“ How many different things we shared over many years. We worked together, we fought together, we learned together. I watched your love with Dee grow, shared your over the moon joy in the birth of your son, watched your care and tenderness with your parents and received your kindness at my losses. I am just so sorry. I hope you are sailing on beautiful seas to a better place. May God watch over and give strength to your family. Rest easy.
