“ Callie was a wonderful, warm person. I wrote a small poem that I thought described her. Our love and prayers are with the Besson/Jackson family. Sorry we can't be there.

*She was delicate like lace-
Her spirit embodied beauty and grace-
Her name symbolized a flower-
Callie used her Southern Charm as power-
The Besson's mother was quite the lady with all her kindness and style-
Callie Coker Besson had an ability to touch people's heart and make them smile-
I know Callie loved antiques and history, her house was splendid like she-
Look to the beauty in the world and you will remember her, she is now free-
She will be missed but she lives on like her old treasures-
All one has to do is remember her life with splendid pleasure-
A piece of Callie's soul was left with everyone she met-
Please don't cry, her spirit is here with us yet.##imported-begin##Judy Tom and Olivia Dunleavy##imported-end##*
