We are so sorry to hear of Uncle Cat's passing. Some of my best memories growing up are of times our families spent together at Grandpa and Grandma Broome's on Sundays. We are not able to travel at this time because of health concerns but wanted you to know you are all in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I served with Mr. Broome for many years in the 878th Combat Engineer Battalion. As a brand new 2nd LT with the Horizontal Contruction Platoon, Swainsboro, GA, I had much to learn about heavy equipment. Mr. Broome taught me a lot about taking care of my equipment in order to accomplish the mission. Mr. Broome had a lot to do with me being capable and becoming the commander of the 878th many years later. I will miss him and I know you will too. He was a great soldier and I was proud to have served with him for all those years.
