“ Carol Drew was my best friend for many reasons. We had so many of the same Interests. Carol loved to laugh and she was there for me through thick and thin. When I was sick she took me to the hospital. She stayed with me at the hospital for hours in the emergency room and then came back early in the morning to be with me. We loved to laugh together and we always enjoyed shopping. Carol could pick out the most beautiful clothes. She knew color and she knew fashion. She would help me pick out clothes. If she didn't like something I liked we would argue and the salesperson would think we were sisters because no one else would talk that way to each other. She was a woman of God . She had a beautiful voice and sang in the choir. We sang Christmas carols together in the car because I couldn't sing. She was so proud of her family spoke often of her husband, children and grandchildren. I love you dear Carol and miss you. Until we meet again I pray knowing God is holding you in the palm of His hands.
With love and affection,
Elaine Henderson
