“ Carolyn Cissy)and I enjoyed many great times together. We played on the basketball team in high school. She was a very strong and determined person,very independent and self driven. She was always laughing and smiling with ever one. She never spoke an unkind word and lifted and encouraged every one. She was smart and loving especial to her friends and family reaching out a helping hand when ever needed.She loved The Lord. She Shared the hope of the gospel where ever She went. The last time I saw Her She woke for a moment and We started sing Jesus Jesus Jesus sweetest name I know, She smiled big and sang every word. We all hugged and She entered Heaven soon after. I will always remember her and love her.
