“ Grandma~ We all have our beautiful memories of spending time you. Sitting in the window watching cars pass, looking for shooting stars, reading, watching old moives and soap operas, walking around the block and in Hitchcock Woods, eating at S&S and Piccadilly, playing rummy, sitting on the floor in the den, in the dark on our pillows with Bibles, flashlights and a battery operated radio during thurderstorms, playing dress up with your pocket books, and looking at pictures in the picture drawer just to name a few. I miss you always. THANK YOU for always being there. THANK YOU for the wonderful childhood memories. I do know one thing...HEAVEN gained an angel and we all now have one over our shoulders. I love you always.

“ *Grandma,
You will be missed! I enjoy drinking hot tea and eating toast with you for breakfast. I remember long walks in Hitchcock Woods. I remember the keds-like tennis shoes you used to wear before Keds became popular in the 1980's. Lots of good memories! Too many to list! I love you!*
