“ Dear Daddy, It has been two years now that you went to be with Mama and with our Lord. I know you are having a blast. You are no longer in pain. I miss you more today than ever. You were the best Daddy ever and I am so blessed to have had you as mine. I long for the day when I can see you again. Your sweet smile and unconditional love ... I love you Daddy.

“ Daddy, I love you so much and I will miss you beyond words. However, I know you are just happy as a lark to be with the love of your life, Mom. The reunion with all your relatives and friends must be amazing. You are telling your stories and 'going for lots of rides' now. Daddy, you are the love of my life...you gave me unconditional love and you were by far my bestest cheerleader and the best Daddy in the world

Cheryl, I am so sorry I could not make it to your Dad's service. I was there in spirit. He meant so much to me as you know. He was a second father to me and he taught me so much and always had time for me. When I came home to visit i couldn't wait to go across the street to see your parents. Well at least they are together again. Tell Melinda and David that I am thinking of you all at this difficult time. Bo Kirkland
