Charlie has been away for over a month now. I think of him constantly. It was always a pleasure to get a glimpse of Charlie's day caught on camera and shared with us. Every day in the life of Charlie and that's how I would start my day. He did so much in 3 hours, and since I'm out west, seeing his smiles and videos went well with my morning coffee. I worry for the family he leaves behind, and for the sister who will not grow up with her older brother. My heart breaks for my dearest and longest sister-friend, Jeri, whom I've known since my little one was just 3 years old (now going on 17) All I can do is pray for all the aching hearts that lived this little guy. I pray the pain in their hearts will soon have peace and comfort for this tremendous loss. Charlie was born to more than his blood line family.... he was born to us as well. I'm missing you something fierce Charlie. God has you safe in His arms now. ☐💔😞

Codi... I am praying for you and for all of his family who love this precious and wonderful little boy. Charlie loved football, Batman and the hundreds of little cars he would play with for hour. He loved trains. His short life has left a hole in the hearts of the many people who dearly loved him and his special smile. So sad his baby sista (he called her) won't have her big brother to grow up with. We will never forget our Charlie.
