“ Herbie was my childhood friend. I will always cherish the memories we made throughout our lives. Even though we have not visited each other as we've gotten older, I still think of him as my best friend. I am sad that he is gone but joyful that he is out of pain and not suffering. My condolences to all of the family. Unfortunately I am unable to make it to his visitation tonight. Jr Shipes & Judy Shipes

“ I first met "Herbie" as we called him back in 1963 when I had the good fortune to become neighbors with the Kimberly family. Herbie was more like a big brother to me, he seemed to naturally want to keep an eye on me and was quick to rein me back in if I did something stupid. Being a few years older than I was back in the 60's "Good Men" like Herbie naturally assumed the role of keeping an eye out for youngsters like us. I hate to think what my outcome may have been without his mentoring and friendship at a time when I needed it most. The reality was he could have just been "too busy" for a kid like me but not Herbie and I thank God for his being how he was. Godspeed Herbie, well done my old friend.
