“ We remember him as Chiz, who was always at the ready to tackle a problem and help to fix it It has been a few decades when we met him through Kathy and her family, but we know that his good humored nature will be missed by all. Our heart felt condolences to his children, grandchildren and extended family.

“ Pop was a kind gentle man. He treated us like Family. He was always ready for a get together and ice cream. He will be missed but remembered with love smile.
We pray that memories from days gone by will bring the Family comfort in the days ahead.
