“ Dear Melissa.

Theresa and I are, with truth deeply sorry for you and your family. And, for this day of your life. We knew this day was inevitable. And we knew, as we watched you care for John over the past years that you were diligently giving your beloved son the best care that any mother could. That place beyond earth we know as Heaven was awaiting John and that day has come. Glory to God as John is accepted to the beyond's lovely Heaven and as God will continue to bless you as the mother of one of God's accepted children. We know you will ask if you need us. With all of our sympathies. Love, Guy and Theresa Valentine###imported-begin##Guy and Theresa###imported-end##

“ Sharon I just wanted to let you know that my thoughts and prayers go out to you and Charlie's family. I didn't know Charlie that well but knowing you, I could see how the love you shared for each other shined through in you day to day. I will never forget the day during Christmas holidays that we ran into each other in Greenwood. The love that you have for Charlie and for God is truly amazing and very rare. I felt blessed just to hear you talk about Charlie and about your faith in our Lord and Savior. Charlie is in Heaven and he is watching over you and protecting you. He will be patiently waiting until you met again face to face. Keep looking towards the Heavens, for he is there. Keep watching for the little signs he sends to let you know that he isn't that far away. Keep your faith and love. And please know that if there is anything that you need, even if it is just to talk, I am only a phone call away. God bless you today, tomorrow, and always.##imported-begin##Tanja Bryan##imported-end##

“ Our love and prayers go out to you, Sharon, and to Charlie's family. We really enjoyed getting to know Charlie through you. He was truly one of a kind. We will never forget how he supported Matt and the entire football team during their quest for the State Championship. He fought a good fight, and now he is with God. He is healed. May God's grace sustain you during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Thomas and Gaye Holmes##imported-end##

“ I will always remember the first time I met Charlie. His uniqueness was that incredible sincerity in his interaction with people. He represented the very presence of God in his life Through Gods fullness and grace in Charlie's life we have all received. Sharon, trust God to remember you. He won't forget your circumstances and He certainly won't forget your prayers. Trust Him. He remembers you. After all, we are His people and the sheep of His pasture.##imported-begin##James Courtney##imported-end##

“ What wasn't to love about Charlie? Happy and tender thoughts enter my mind as I think about Sharon and Charlie together. God gave them such a short time to share their tremendous love for one another but they made every minute count!!! May Sharon and Charlie's family feel God's embrace as they face each day without him.##imported-begin##Sheila Huiet##imported-end##

“ Charlie was so special to our family. His friendship is one that will always be treasured. We've had so many good times with Sharon and him. All of our times spent together are memories we'll cherish forever. To our children, he was "Mr. Charlie", and they loved him, too.

Throughout his illness, Charlie's attitude was truly amazing. He never complained or felt sorry for himself. He remained positive in spite of the pain, and his faith sustained him. My hope is that Sharon, his family, and his friends will all find comfort in knowing Charlie is no longer in pain. He is with Our Father in Heaven, and I'm certain he's looking down upon us now and smiling that adorable little-boy smile of his.##imported-begin##Wade and Lynn Richardson##imported-end##

“ Charlie was and will always be the love of my life. We had planned to be married August 18, 2007. We met through mutual friends and it was truly love at first sight. I have never known a more loving, kind, compassionate man in my life. I am certainly a better person for having known him. I miss him so terribly much but I am thankful to our Lord that he is no longer suffering. I know he will be waiting for me at Heaven`s gate to welcome "his baby" into the Kingdom. The love we shared was rare and I will live my life to honor his memory and serve the purpose God would have me do here on earth. I will cherish many wonderful memories and will look forward to the day we can spend eternity together. I will always be in love with "my Charlie"!!!!##imported-begin##sharon w keesley##imported-end##

“ We loved Charlie as we love our family. He was such a wonderful friend and "uncle" to our children and grandchildren. They loved him so much. But most of all we are so grateful for the love he had for Sharon and the love she had (and has) for him. Charlie was one of a kind and will be so missed by us all. It is easy to see why God wanted him with Him. We are all so blessed and better people for knowing him. May God bless all of you and give you peace during this sorrowful time and know that you all are in our prayers.##imported-begin##Billy and June Wall##imported-end##
