“ Tyka was the best grandmother I could ever ask for, although I havent seen her in many years, when I was young she was always there for me when times was hard. I'll never forget the memories we shared. They will always be dear to my heart. I'm just found out today that she was laid to rest which is even more heart breaking. But I love you grandma and miss you even more than you know. Sorry that you couldnt share a life with your up coming great grandbaby. Heather....
