prayers. I've known Brother Andy for about as long as I can remember. He was a Deacon at Macon Baptist Temple way back “ Mrs. Anderson, Rusty, Donna, and Jesslyn, so very sorry to hear about Mr. Andy. I always considered him to be a true friend of my family. He was so patient and sweet to my dad when he was in his final stages of cancer and Mr. Andy would talk with daddy about God's plan of salvation and accepting Christ as his personal savior. I can still feel Mr. Andy's arm around my shoulders when, after one of their talks and a cup of coffee, Mr. Andy told me that I did not have to worry about my dad, that he accepted the Lord and prayed with Mr. Andy and that my dad was going to heaven. Mr. Andy was definitely a man of God and a wonderful and faithful friend to my parents when he and Mrs. Anderson lived in Macon. You will truly be missed, not only by your family, but also your friends. Nancy
