“ Just learned today, her birthday, that Cheryl passed away back in March. I along with her close high school friends are shocked. I knew Cheryl since 5 year old kindergarten. My parent were good friends and neighbors of her parents, Hank and Winnie. I look at these pictures and can hear her laugh. Rest in peace, old friend. Sandra Osborne DeAntonio

“ Cheryl, was such a sweet, caring, honest, kindhearted, and genuine lady! I had the pleasure of meeting and working with her at Aiken Elementary! We become friends and a group of us would go to out to lunch or eat lunch together on Friday's during the pandemic! She would talk about her furbaby, Darcy, her family, her precious grandchildren, and her great granddaughter! We would always have some great conversations! She would rush to leave work on Tuesday's to spend time with her grandchildren! I'm am praying for her family, AES family, and all the people who she touched lives! I love you my sweet friend and I miss you already! ❤️

“ For the last few years Cheryl Sigwald was a major part of my son's life. She worked with him daily and encouraged him every step of the way on his journey. The way she treated him was an act of love that too few people have in this world. William told me the other day "Don't worry Dad, I will see Ms. Sigwald again later. She will be waiting to show me the way when I get there.". William loved you. We all loved you. Rest well.

“ We moved to Aiken in 2020 and Cheryl immediately showed us that she was a good neighbor and quickly became a friend as well. Our dogs loved to play with each other, while we talked and learned about each other and shared across the fence that separated the yards. We offer our prayers of comfort to your family so that you know that she will be missed.

What a good neighbor we found when we moved in Cheryl Sigwald. My children and hers grew up together and became lifelong friends as did Cheryl and I. She will be greatly missed.

“ In the brief time I knew Cheryl, she put a smile on my face many times. I was fortunate enough to have great conversations with her. She shared her love for her family, dog and children with me. She told it as she saw it and I appreciated that about her :) She will be greatly missed at Aiken Elementary. It's not the same without her in 4th grade.

Many blessings to your family during this difficult time,
