

Christopher David Garrick

August 16, 1978 - June 2, 2013

Christopher David Garrick

Taylors, SC-Christopher David Garrick, 34, entered into rest June 2, 2013. A private family memorial service will be held.

Christopher was a native of North Augusta, having made the Greenville area his home for the past 6 years. He currently worked as a Chef at the Bombay Club. The art of food preparation was a passion for Christopher. He was incredibly talent in culinary arts and was co-owner of I.C.E. Creations, an ice sculpturing company. Christopher was dedicated to his family and career. He was an extremely hard working and devoted person.

Survivors include his parents, Charles and Marilyn Garrick, North Augusta; two brothers, Andrew Barr, Greenville, SC and Patrick Garrick, Ottawa, KS; two sisters, Melanie Royster and Kristina Cota, both of Aiken, SC; several nieces and nephews.

Posey Funeral Directors of North Augusta in charge of arrangements (803.278.1181). Visit the registry online at www.poseyfuneraldirectors.com

Tribute Wall

“ Christopher David Garrick

October 06, 2023 at 06:29 AM

“ Christopher David Garrick

September 24, 2022 at 12:12 PM

RT

“ It is hard to smile when your friend is hurting... Charlie, Marilyn -- Jon, Jason, and I are truly sorry for your loss . There is an overwhelming sadness when someone that we hold dear passes away but “ To Live In The Hearts Of Those We Love Is Not To Die” - his memory will be written in your hearts forever and there will be peace after pain.

'Gone From My Sight'

*I am standing upon the seashore. A ship, at my side, spreads her white sails to the moving breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength.
I stand and watch her until, at length, she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.*

Then, someone at my side says, "There, she is gone"

Gone where?

*Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast, hull and spar as she was when she left my side.
And, she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.*

*Her diminished size is in me -- not in her.
And, just at the moment when someone says, "There, she is gone," there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "Here she comes!"*

And that is dying...

*Death comes in its own time, in its own way.
Death is as unique as the individual experiencing it.*

-- by Henry Van Dyke

Regina Orlosky Trueblood - June 12, 2013 at 03:02 PM

CG

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

C. Garrick - June 09, 2013 at 07:19 PM

CG

Patrick, Christopher and Andrew

C. Garrick - June 09, 2013 at 07:20 PM

MR

“ Christopher,

I want you to know how much I love you, more than you know. I have helped raise you, I have shared your love of cooking, I have made the same grades you did in high school. and I have loved making people happy as much as you did. I am so sorry that I did not tell you often enough how much I love you and how much I enjoyed being around you. You tried so much trying to please people as much as I did and still do. I want you to know that you have accomplished more than I could ever accomplish. I was so proud of it all and I hope you know it. I miss you so much and I just want to hold your hand again give you the biggest hug. I thank you so much of the ice sculptures and cooking that you did for my parties and family weddings; I was proud and will forever be proud of what you became. I hate and will miss you terrible at my daughter's wedding to show all of your talents; we will definitely honor you and you will feel the love of our family. Thank you for being in our lives and I love that yOu will be our. or my, special angel. Every time the sun shines, I will think of you. Love you so much, Mel

Melanie Royster - June 09, 2013 at 06:57 PM

DS

“ Charlie, Marilyn and family,

The tragic loss of Christopher has all of your extended family and friends grieving and praying for you to be given the strength to get through this hard time. Charlie, as your older cousin, and growing up nearby in Algiers Point, I always knew that you would have loved to have had a larger family. That dream came true when you and Marilyn married, and your family has become one that has been loved and admired by your relatives. It is a shame that as adults we have lived so far apart, but you have always kept in touch. Although we never got to know Christopher in person, we saw him growing up, along with Andrew, Melanie, Kristina and Patrick, because of all the wonderful photos and letters you sent over the years. Marilyn, we have always been so happy that Charlie found you, and for the lovely family that the two of you raised together. May closeness of family, and all the lovely sympathy notes and tributes to Christopher that I just read from your friends help you cope with his being taken too soon.

Love and prayers,

Dottie McKernan Standley

Dottie McKernan Standley - June 08, 2013 at 09:05 AM

ER

“ Erica lit a candle in memory of Christopher David Garrick

Erica - June 08, 2013 at 07:29 AM

PL

“ Charlie and Marilyn,

My condolences to your entire family for your loss. I pray that you take some comfort in knowing that you are in my thoughts and prayers as well as those of your Health Central family.

Patricia Lee

Patricia Lee - June 07, 2013 at 08:48 AM

KB

“ Charlie and Marilyn,

We have joined your family late in life, blindly, without any expectations, just knowing that I loved Andrew with all of my heart. What I received after was more than I ever expected, and that was a second family, that I truly loved, enjoyed, and embraced.

Christopher was kind of my first true experience with you all, despite his trials it was impossible not to love and accept. . I knew Andrew, but he was different than Andrew, and that intrigued me. He was so sweet, kind and giving, very basic and unassuming, it pained me that he struggled given all that he had to offer, I had a first hand experience of his struggles, which accelerated the closeness of our relationship. He was so quick to help me with anything I needed, so interesting to listen to as he talked about his dreams of being a chef and opening a restaurant. His talks always involved family in some way, it was important to make them proud always.

It is hard to be where we are now, all of that is gone. I can only be thankful to be touched by his life for a short time, and to be mindful to what he has taught me.

As I sit here the past few days I am amazed at the family that you and Charlie have created. I listen to all the laughter, tears , silliness, what a beautiful family you have. I love you both, and I sit back and admire you from afar. Some day I hope to be as great of parents, grandparents as you.

*All my love,
Kim*

Kimberly Barr - June 06, 2013 at 09:40 PM

AN

“ Charlie and Marilyn, Andrew, Melanie, Patrick, and Kristina,

We are very saddened by your loss; you are in our thoughts and prayers....

May our Lord bless and comfort you as only he can, and bring peace and healing to your hearts.

Art & Deen Norsworthy, Charles and Charlyn

Art Norsworthy - June 06, 2013 at 07:35 PM

KB

“ Uncle Chris, you were an amazing person, and a very special uncle to me. Over the past few days the family has had some tough times, and that is because you meant more to this family than you will ever know. While you were only about 14 years older than me you taught me so much in a short span of time. My earliest memory of you was from Christmas when I was only 3 or 4 years old. You saw a beautiful nativity scene with a barn, and while it was too expensive for you, that is what you wanted to give me and you made it happen, just like you did with everything. Nana says that you spend hours finding sticks in the yard and making me the most beautiful barn by hand that would house my nativity scene for years. I don't know if you ever knew how much that gift has meant to me over the years and how much I will cherish it for the rest of my life. While this is just one small memory I have of our time together, it shows the character that you had your entire life. You were the most innovative and creative person I know, and had so much tenacity in everything you did. I will miss you and will think of you often. 20 years with you is not nearly enough, but I will forever cherish the times that I spent with you. All my love, Kaitlyn

Kaitlyn Barr - June 06, 2013 at 08:46 AM

BA

“ *Melanie and family,
We are so sorry to hear of such a tragedy. Our thoughts are with you during your sorrow.
Billie and Oz Allen*

Billie Allen - June 05, 2013 at 07:09 PM

CW

“ Charlie and Marilyn, I am so very sorry to hear the news. It is so hard to lose anyone, but to lose a child is especially difficult. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Catherine Williams - June 05, 2013 at 03:08 PM

SD

“ I was saddened to learn of your loss of Chris. I had the pleasure of working with Chris at Tomos USA and you were correct in stating that Chris was a hard worker. He was also a very kind hearted and sweet young man. He never had a bad word to say to or about anyone. Chris was meticulous in everything he did and it did not surprise me that he exceled in the art of ice sculpting. Please know that while his time on earth was short, his impact on others was tremendous. My thoughts and prayers are with your family in this incredibly difficult time.

Sarah Davis - June 05, 2013 at 09:33 AM

GW

“ We are so sorry for your loss! There are no words to ease the pain-- only time can do that. We keep your family in our Prayers & thoughts!!

Rand & Gaynell Wortman

gaynell Wortman - June 04, 2013 at 06:09 PM

AN

“ Christopher, an obituary, as impersonal as it is and always will be, is just simply a notification to others that you were loved and will be forever missed. In some way, everyone that passes has that. However, I need more and I so wish I could tell you more. Chris, you were so loved and I so wish I could tell you that again. I know how much we, your family, meant to you and I want you to know that. We will be forever thankful for the thirty four years we have shared with you and we will do all we can to honor that, be mindful of that, respect that, and pass that along to our children. For those that don't know, my brother was an extremely talented chef. To those that did he was always so much more than that. He was extremely generous and caring, cut from the same cloth as my grandparents. He never, ever, had a bad word or a bad thought about anyone. Despite untold and sometimes unimaginable hardship he remained innocent and kind and I will miss him deeply.

Andrew - June 04, 2013 at 01:01 PM

CN

Andrew, I am so sorry. My heart breaks for you and your family. You all will be in my thoughts and prayers. May the great memories you have carry you thru this difficult time. Cindy Nelson

Cindy Nelson - June 04, 2013 at 02:43 PM

 Gina Rosier

Thinking of You and Your Family at this Time, Andrew. Raising You up in Prayers to Receive Comfort..Do Not Hesitate to reach out for old friends for help coping. They know. Love to All. gina Dawkins Rosier

Gina Rosier - June 04, 2013 at 10:28 PM

 Gina Rosier

Thinking of You and Your Family at this Time, Andrew. Raising You up in Prayers to Receive Comfort..Do Not Hesitate to reach out for old friends for help coping. They know. Love to All. gina Dawkins Rosier

Gina Rosier - June 04, 2013 at 10:28 PM

LJ

Andrew, I think so much of you and your family. I can remember the day that Christopher born it seems like it was yesterday. I can't thank you enough for what you and your family did for me when my father pasted away. Sorry for your loss.

Larry Joiner

Larry Joiner - June 05, 2013 at 08:56 AM

LM

Andrew, I was out of town when Christopher passed and have just learned about it. I cannot tell you how much my heart aches for your loss. Know that your old NA buds still love you and share in your loss. Wishing you peace that surpasses all understanding. Lisa Nelms Murphy

Lisa Nelms Murphy - June 10, 2013 at 04:00 PM

TB

*“ I am so sorry for your loss. I only met him once, at my son Brandon and Mellissa's wedding. Thank you both for your help at the wedding, it was beautiful and the shrimp and grits were a BIG hit. My God be with you and your family at this most difficult time and bring you some peace in your hearts.
sincerely, Teresa Babb*

Teresa Babb - June 04, 2013 at 12:42 PM

SR

“ I have great memories of Christopher from travels to North Carolina. I was very fond of him. I am deeply sorrowful for Charlie and Marilyn and family for your loss.

Sam Rollason

Samuel H. Rollason - June 04, 2013 at 12:27 PM

MR

“ 3 files added to the album New Album Name

mike royster - June 03, 2013 at 11:59 PM

WD

“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.

Wendy Dunnell - June 03, 2013 at 11:55 PM

MR

“ 2 files added to the album New Album Name

mike royster - June 03, 2013 at 11:52 PM

“ Christopher,

For the past ten years you have not only been my brother-in-law but you have also been one of my best friends. You are the only guy I could talk to about things that were going on in our lives without feeling like I was being judged or looked down upon. I called you in some of my darkest hours and you always made me feel loved and needed. I know you shared with me some of your hopes and dreams, as well as your struggles. I thank God that we were always there for one another, I just wish I could have been there more. I already missed you more than words and now I feel an overwhelming sense of loneliness. . . who is going to call me late at night and keep me up laughing and crying for hours? Who am I going to call when your brother and I get into an argument over something piddly and I need your "side"? Who is going to call me and message me on facebook at the same time because we are laughing to hard to talk, but don't want to hang up the phone? You know that other than Patrick I love you more than any other man ever, I always will. And if you don't mind I will still "call" on you when I am feeling lost or when I am feeling like a true LSU fan and wanna rant about it with you and your brother at the same time. And know that even though you left us all too soon that you will never be forgotten. Until we meet again baby boy, I love you to the moon and back!

Forever, your sis-in-law, Buffy Garrick

Buffy Garrick - June 03, 2013 at 10:40 PM

KJ

“ Kjarstie & Joe lit a candle in memory of Christopher David Garrick

Kjarstie & Joe - June 03, 2013 at 09:41 PM

BR

“ I only met you a few times but I knew you had the same love for cooking just like Mel and I. You were so talented and Impressed so many of us! I enjoyed 3 different ice arts you created and they were beautiful. You will be missed but I know where you are and you will be waiting on family and friends to join you one day.

bridgitte - June 03, 2013 at 09:30 PM

MR

“ Christopher,

You were the "younger" brother I never had. Always around your sister Melanie - now my wife. You made me laugh even though you were only 5 years old. I have never seen someone that young and could fall out of tree, get hit in the head by his brother Patrick with a SHOVEL! Never once seemed to be hurt at all. You and Patrick were like the three stoogies minus one. You always seemed curious. I think that is what helped you in your culinary path. A good cook is a curious cook. Never shy to try new taste. You showed me what you could do when you helped me cater a wedding and I knew then that your family needed to see you do your "stuff" at Melanie's birthday party. Will always think of you when sweating it out in the kithchen.

Luv,

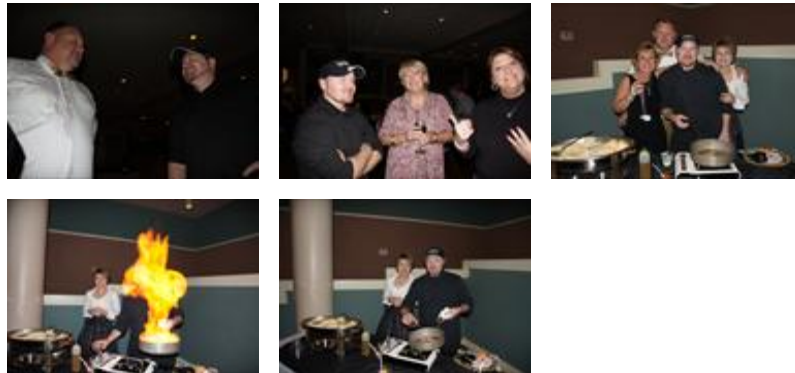

your "older" brother

Mike

Mike royster - June 03, 2013 at 05:57 PM

MR

“ 8 files added to the album New Album Name

Mike royster - June 03, 2013 at 05:43 PM

CG

Thank you, Mike. Thank you Kim and everyone who shared their memories of Chris, and those of you knew him very little but were thinking of his family -- I hope that you have read some of the comments of friends and family and seen some of the photos, and that now you know him better. It's over seven months now, and we hurting less but, he's still in our thoughts.

Dad

Charles Garrick - January 13, 2014 at 09:03 PM