“ To the family of Christy Norris,

I am so very sorry for your loss. I have just learned of Christy's passing and I am in shock. I have not seen her in several months but had the pleasure of working with her at the Salvation Army homeless shelter for over a year. Christy was very kind-hearted and caring of all those that crossed her path at the homeless shelter. She will be missed and again, please accept my sincere sympathy in her passing.

“ Christy, you had a heart of gold. Thank you for taking in those that others shunned, for being a good daughter, and for the work you did for Salvation Army. You were willing to give others a second chance with numerous unselfish acts of love-- an angel in disguise--and will be truly missed. Susan
