“ Darn it Cindy! I will miss you so much at BYU Education Week. I was really looking forward to seeing you. You are so smart, and changed my life for the better. I will always remember you, and I am quite bummed I will not get to see you for awhile. At least I am glad I got to talk to you before you passed through the veil, to tell you thanks for everything. Love you and miss you, Kim Curling

“ My life and that of my children have been forever touched and blessed by her ministering hand. What a privilege to have known her, what an honor to have been her friend. What a comfort to know that her example lives on through the lives of the countless people she has loved, cared for, and always laughed with.
