“ Dear Kugler Family,
Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your dear loved one Cole. Even though I didn't have the opportunity to get to know him personally, I have lost loved ones in death and it hurts. Please be aware that our Heavenly Father understands the pain you feel more than anyone else on this earth, and He cares so very deeply for you. (1Peter 5:7) May it comfort you to know that God has lovingly promised to reunite us with our dead loved ones by means of a resurrection right here on earth in paradise conditions that will be filled with peace, love, happiness, and perfect health for everyone. He has even promised to eliminate death forever. (John 5:28,29; Psalms 37:9-11,29; Isaiah 33:24; Revelation 21:4) May this precious hope, along with loving memories of Cole, bring you a measure of comfort during this most difficult time. Rest assured that God will do all that He has promised. (Hebrews 6:18) My deepest sympathy to you.

“ I had brief contact with Cole and his parents years ago through his Aunt Louise, but those moments will be remembered as significant for his pleasant smile and good energy. My wish is that his parents can celebrate his life and build upon it even in his absence.

“ I didn't know Cole very well, but new enough to know that he was a good kid and everytime i seen him we'd speak or throw a wave every now and then and he was always on the move tryin to work hard, but whether i knew him well or not ,it is still so heartbreaking to lose anyone, especially a child or young man like Cole. My heart goes out to all those who were close to him, family, friends, co-workers, supervisors . He will be missed.

“ When I saw Cole working on the dock, I tried to say hello when I could. He was always holding his own with the other men and worked very hard. As a father of a 19 year old myself, I feel such sadness. We know that in all things (good or bad), God works for the good of those who love him. Myself, Pat Carpenter, and First Baptist Church of North Augusta are all praying for your family. God bless.
