“ *Dear Shirley,
You and your family will be in our prayers for strenght to get through this sorrowful time.
I know that you brought Neal much happiness and love and he for you. He was the most generous, thoughtful and kind person that ever lived. We were all blessed for having known him and having him in our family.
God bless you.

Hello, I am Cornelius Fred Harting Jr. My father spoke of you on a few occasions. I was wondering if you would be able to tell me any of his history. He never would talk much of his time as a youth. I would really like to talk with you. Thank you.

“ I know that in the final hours when my father was last aware of his surroundings he would have wanted no one other than Shirley to be there by his side. There is no word that I can use to express my admiration and love for the way you helped him pass through to a heavenly home. Shirley you were his rock from beginning to end and he knew it. Thank you for standing by my father when he needed you the most. My father told me that he was strong in his faith. Knowing that, I am happy that he now sings praise to the Son of God. I would hope we all see my father again some day. I love you Shirley.##imported-begin##Cornelius F Harting Jr.##imported-end##
